Rosemarie Latham Outpaces Rep. Barnaby in Fundraising, Doubling Contributions with Grassroots Support

DeLan, FL – Rosemarie Latham’s campaign for Florida House District 29 has achieved a significant milestone, raising double the amount of contributions compared to her opponent, Rep. Webster Barnaby, for the filing period of 04/01/2024 - 05/31/2024. In a powerful demonstration of grassroots support, all of Latham’s donations come from individual contributors, while the majority of Barnaby’s funding is sourced from major corporations and political action committees (PACs).

Rosemarie Latham’s campaign has resonated deeply with the community, showcasing a growing desire for new leadership and a commitment to people-powered politics. The impressive fundraising numbers highlight the campaign’s broad-based support and the effectiveness of its outreach efforts.

“I am incredibly humbled and inspired by the overwhelming support our campaign has received from individuals in our community,” said Rosemarie Latham. “This campaign is truly powered by the people, and together, we are building a movement focused on accountability, transparency, and genuine representation. Unlike my opponent, who relies heavily on corporate and PAC contributions, our campaign is driven by everyday citizens who believe in our vision for a better Florida.”

Latham’s approach contrasts sharply with Rep. Barnaby’s funding model, emphasizing a grassroots movement over corporate influence. The surge in individual contributions underscores a strong community endorsement of Latham’s platform, which prioritizes healthcare, education, and environmental sustainability.

With the election approaching, Rosemarie Latham’s campaign continues to build momentum, reflecting a growing desire for a representative who truly understands and advocates for the needs of the people.
