Rosemarie Latham Outraises Opponent 4:1, Demonstrates Strong Grassroots Support

Deltona, FL — In a strong display of grassroots momentum, Rosemarie Latham has outraised her opponent, Rep. Webster Barnaby, by an impressive margin of 4:1 in the latest campaign finance reporting period. Latham's campaign garnered the support of 52 more individual donors compared to Barnaby's single donor, highlighting the widespread community backing behind her bid for Florida House District 29.

"We are a true people-powered campaign," said Rosemarie Latham. "Our campaign is driven by everyday Floridians who are ready for a representative that listens and fights for their interests."

The stark contrast in donor numbers underscores Latham's commitment to building a broad coalition of support, while Barnaby's lack of small-dollar contributions raises questions about his connection to the district's voters. House District 29 is considered one of the most flippable districts in this election cycle, and Latham's fundraising success is a strong indicator of her campaign's viability.

With her focus on key issues like expanding access to healthcare, protecting reproductive rights, and addressing local concerns such as flooding and the insurance crisis, Rosemarie Latham is poised to bring fresh leadership to Tallahassee. Her campaign's impressive fundraising and grassroots engagement continue to build the momentum needed to flip this critical seat.
