Rosemarie Latham Earns Endorsement from the AFL-CIO

Deltona, FL — Rosemarie Latham, the Democratic candidate for Florida House District 29, is proud to announce that she has received the endorsement of the AFL-CIO, one of the nation's most influential labor organizations. This endorsement underscores Rosemarie's commitment to advocating for workers' rights, fair wages, and safe working conditions across Florida.

"Unions are the backbone of our workforce, and I am committed to fighting for policies that protect the rights of workers and their families", said Latham. This endorsement reinforces our shared vision for creating a Florida where workers are protected and supported."

The AFL-CIO represents millions of workers across the country, and their endorsement highlights Latham's dedication to labor issues such as collective bargaining, raising the minimum wage, and ensuring workplace safety. With the backing of organized labor, Latham's campaign continues to gain momentum in one of Florida's most competitive districts.

"As your representative, I will stand up for working families and ensure that their voices are heard in Tallahassee. Together, we can create a Florida where workers are respected and given the tools they need to thrive."

Rosemarie Latham's platform focuses on expanding access to healthcare, preserving democracy, protecting reproductive rights, and supporting economic policies that benefit all Floridians. With the AFL-CIO's endorsement, she is ready to continue building a coalition that reflects the values and needs of Florida's hardworking families.
