Rosemarie Latham Garners Broad Support with Major Endorsements Across Florida

DeLand, FL — Rosemarie Latham, Democratic candidate for Florida House District 29, is proud to announce an impressive array of endorsements from prominent organizations and community leaders. Her campaign has gained momentum with widespread support from groups dedicated to women's rights, environmental protection, and labor reform, reflecting her deep commitment to the people of District 29 and Florida as a whole. Latham has secured endorsements from the following organizations:

- Florida Democratic Party
- Volusia County Democratic Party - Women's Caucus
- Volusia County Democratic Party - Environmental Caucus
- Volusia County Democratic Party - Black Caucus
- Volusia County Democratic Party - Veteran's Caucus
- Volusia Young Democrats
- Florida National Organization for Women (NOW)
- Sierra Club
- International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) Local 756
- Her Bold Move
- Florida Planned Parenthood
- Moms Demand Action
- AFL-CIO Florida
- Equality Florida

"These endorsements reflect the values of our community, from fighting for women's rights and protecting our environment to ensuring good jobs and safe neighborhoods," said Latham. "I am committed to representing the needs of all Floridians and bringing present leadership to District 29."

Latham's endorsements highlight her alignment with key issues, including access to reproductive healthcare, environmental justice, workers' rights, and public safety, which are at the heart of her campaign. With a coalition of organizations and community advocates behind her, Latham is ready to make an impact in Tallahassee as the only would-be elected healthcare professional to the state assembly.
